Constructed between 1903-05,
the Martin House complex
exemplifies Wright's early career
"Prairie House" ideal.

A GREAT ARCHITECT, A GREAT HOUSE, A GREAT STORY

America's greatest architect, Frank Lloyd Wright, created the Darwin D. Martin House complex in 1903-05. Today it is open for tours while undergoing restoration. Your tour will take you inside one of the greatest houses Wright ever designed during his celebrated career.

Wright once called the Martin House, "the most perfect thing of its kind in the world – a domestic symphony," and referred to it as "the opus" some 50 years after it was built.

Your expert tour guide will unravel Wright's artistry in creating intricate harmonies between his buildings and the landscape and will narrate the remarkable story of the great architect and his most loyal patron – Darwin D. Martin – the man he once called his "best friend."

All Martin House Complex tours are docent-led and are by reservation only.
Please call 716-856-3858 or toll-free at 877-377-3858 for tour booking.

Buffalo is known as a living museum of notable historic architecture including works by Louis Sullivan, Henry Hobson Richardson, and Eliel and Eero Saarinen, plus one of the largest collections of Wright-designed buildings outside Chicago.

Your visit to Buffalo puts you within a 4-hour drive from Pittsburgh and Fallingwater, a 20-minute drive from Niagara Falls and the lovely Niagara wine region, and a 2-hour drive from Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
